

BRIGHT FUTURES PERU
ENRICHING KIDS' LIVES

YOU can make the difference!

Bright Futures Peru was founded by a former Peace Corps volunteer and four elementary schools teachers whose students come from the impoverished slum areas of the La Esperanza district near Trujillo, Peru. These students face tremendous family, social, & economic challenges. Please consider coming to Peru to help these children succeed in school.

VOLUNTEER IN PERU

TRAVEL TO TRUJILLO, PERU!

Bright Futures Peru is a non-profit charity organization that is recruiting Spanish-speaking student volunteers to work with at-risk children who attend a public elementary school located in the La Esperanza district of Trujillo, Peru.

Volunteers can work as teacher assistants in the classroom during school hours and tutoring kids one-on-one and in small groups after school.

Volunteering is a great opportunity to use your Spanish speaking abilities while doing important work helping at-risk kids.

Requirements:

- Must be a Spanish speaker (heritage or CEFR B1/B2 level).
- Volunteering is free, but the volunteer must cover their own expenses while in Peru. (approx. $600 / month)
- Able to teach or tutor math, reading, writing, arts projects, & sports for elementary school students (1st - 5th grade).
- Volunteer for 30 to 90 days in Peru.
- Have a passport.
